BOARD COMMENTS

Alderman Davis stated he was happy with the progress being made on the Hardware Store Project. Alderman Black addressed an issue of a hole at the corner of Hwy 95 and Craigs Chapel Road. The mayor addressed the situation stating the TDOT needs to be informed as that is a state road. Alderman Black also brought for the need for a truck for the maintenance workers. Mayor Birchfield indicated TDOT will be striping off the emergency lane on Hwy 411 and Hwy 95.

OLD BUSINESS

Hardware Store Project is moving forward. Foundation, framing and roof to be done by Monday January 16, 2023. Brick mason to finish up. Braces will come down once side wall is tied into back of the building.

NEW BUSINESS

We have received the final audit report conducted by Whitney & Co. P.C. Each of alderman has received a copy in your packet. We did not have any findings this year.

ALDERMEN ACTIONS

The charter of Greenback states there are to be a mayor and four aldermen. Greenback has been one alderman short since Kristi Munsey moved out of the city. Since only three individuals ran for the office in the last election the Board is still short. A Derrick Doehler, a citizen who qualifies for the position has come forward to be the fourth alderman. Alderman Black made a motion to accept Derrick Doehler as an alderman on the Greenback Board. The motion was seconded by Mayor Birchfield.

Upon Roll Call Vote the following Board members voted AYE: Baker, Davis, Birchfield and Black.

The motion PASSED: (4/0/0)
