BOARD COMMENTS

Mayor Birchfield informed the Board he had talked with Sheriff Jimmy Davis and Deputy Hutchinson asking them patrol Greenback a little more regularly to help build trust with the sheriff's department and the Greenback citizens.

Alderman Black encouraged citizens to call the sheriff's office when they have issues that require law enforcement.

There has been an issue with kids riding dirt bikes in the new park. We need citizens to report them a member of the Board so we can stop them.

OLD BUSINESS

Work began on the hardware store. A few more spec sheets are need to determine floor stress before a building permit can be obtained. Ms. Rossi would like to have the building under roof before cold weather.

NEW BUSINESS

A home school group is looking for a facility to meet every other week for about three hours in the afternoon. More information needs to be obtained to determine if this is a for profit activity.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Janet McKnight asked the Board if they could repair a pothole in her parking lot as the citizens are using her parking lot to make turn around. Also, she thanked the mayor for giving her Billy Pickel's contact information as concerns her dam issue.

Sandra Tipton informed the Board the Greenback Museum/Heritage Society has $31,828.91 to donate to the Hardware Store construction.

Mary Aker asked when the sewer will be installed. She also warned about scam calls concerning utilities.
