BOARD COMMENTS

Mayor Birchfield stated he had been approached about an individual interested in purchasing the Hutton farm for use as a rock quarry and he wanted to make the Board members and the citizens aware of the possibility. He also informed the those present that we would have a visit from Rep. Tim Burchett on Thursday February 23rd at 10:00 am. Further, he would like to thank Margaret Moore, Wendy Tittsworth, Mary Aker and all who showed up at the Loudon County Commission meeting on February 6th to express their need for sewer in Greenback. Finally, if we are going to have a museum in Greenback for the next generation a concerted effort needs to be made to get some younger people involved. The town is going to a considerable expense to restore the Hardware Store for the purpose of a museum.

Aldermen Black stated she thought that the Board meetings should be videoed.

OLD BUSINESS

Hardware Store Project is progressing steadily. We are waiting on the electric and gas hook-ups. Deb Rossi, our builder, is doing an excellent job and is very conscientious with expenses. To date we have spent $182,408.18, but still have some big expenses ahead.

NEW BUSINESS

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Margaret Moore ask about the plumbing at the Hardware Store since the town is having such an issue with sewer.

Dan Moore was curious as to what will be the next step in the funding for the sewer system.

Mary Aker stated there continues to be an issue with water flow and there are some concrete slabs in the water way ditch.
